—IN VENEZUELA—

Ring Closed On Rebellion

Caracas, Venezuela (AP)—Government warplanes bombed and strafed rebellious marines and military policemen at Carupano and loyal troops massed on the edge of the coastal city early Saturday for a dawn attack.

Carupano's 400-man marine garrison and 50 military policemen launched a rebellion early Friday and reportedly passed out arms to communist and leftist supporters to battle loyalist forces moving in from 3 directions. Two government destroyer's steamed into Carupano's harbor to block sea escape.

President Romulo Betancourt accused the rebels of trying to set up Cuba-Castro regime in Venezuela and gave them until dawn to surrender or be crushed.

First Skirmish

The first skirmish was reported Friday night on a road leading into Carupano. There was no official estimate of casualties, but a radio broadcast from the nearby city of Cumana said there were many.

Government air force planes earlier bombed the Carupano airport in an effort to make it useless to the rebels and strafed the marine garrison. The marines reportedly held up in a high school in the center of the city.

Troops loyal to Betancourt halted their march at the edge of Carupano because of darkness and to give the insurgents time to accept his ultimatum to surrender by dawn or be destroyed.

Curfew Announced

The rebel radio announced a curfew in the besieged city and said violators faced the death penalty.

Officials at Miraflores Presidential Palace in Caracas said earlier reports that loyalist forces had crushed the revolt were premature.

Palace officials said the revolt was part of a movement by the Communist Party and other leftists to overthrow the government of President Romulo Betancourt, a backer of the U.S. Alliance for Progress program who has taken a strong stand against the Cuban regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Railroads, Unions Rap Dime Hike

Chicago (AP)—Railroad management and union leaders, protesting against a recommended 10.2-cent wage hike for 450,000 workers, invoked government policy statements Friday to support opposite stands.

Management said the hourly wage increase recommended by an emergency board Thursday for members of 11 non-operating rail unions was too much and inflationary. The unions said it was not enough to pay employees fairly.

Apparently, both sides looked to President Kennedy for help. The President took an emphatic personal stand in the steel wage-price dispute last month.

James E. Wolfe, head of the railroads' joint bargaining team, said the proposed pay raises would add $105 million a year to operating costs of the 212 railroads involved. He termed it "inflationary and not a true and reasonable productivity increase."

"I think consistency demands that the administration frown upon anything that will be destructive of its policy of curbing inflationary trends," Wolfe said.

In Washington, George E. Leighty, chairman of the unions' joint negotiating committee, said the affected employees — those who do clerical, service and maintenance work but do not actually operate the trains — have had no increase in their real wages since 1958, during a period when real wages rose substantially for other workers.

Miners' Union Is Ruled Red

Washington (UPI) — The Subversive Activities Control Board ruled Friday that the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers is a communist-infiltrated organization.

The board's action makes the union ineligible to bargain for or represent employees under the National Labor Relations Act. The board issued a final order adopting the findings of Francis A. Cherry, a board member who held hearings on the case.

The action was taken under the 1950 Internal Security Act, amended by the Communist Control Act of 1954. It left the union's last recourse an appeal to the U.S. court of appeals.

The board acts as a district court in such cases.

Cherry said: "On the basis of the entire record, it is concluded that (the union) is substantially directed, dominated or controlled by individuals who are (or have been) actively engaged in giving support to the Communist Party of the United States."

Cherry said in one of 238 separate findings, adopted by the full board, that "the aid and support flowing to the Communist Party (U.S.A.) from (the union) and its controlling leadership has been real, substantial and significant."

The report said, "The Communist Party has acquired and will continue to have a dependable foothold in the labor movement in the United States," through the union.

The action against the union, which has its headquarters

Kelley Plays Labor Dispute Peacemaker

Omaha (AP) — John Kelley, aide to Gov. Frank Morrison, was in Omaha Friday for a luncheon and hoping to see officials of both the Peter Kiewit Sons Co., and the Operating Engineers' Union.

Kiewit has been struck by the union and Kelley said he wanted "to see if there is anything the governor's office can do to help the situation."

The governor had said he sent Kelley to Omaha although he learned from the attorney general the governor's office has no power to intervene in the dispute which has held up Interstate Highway construction in the Omaha area.

John Grogan, federal mediator, said that although Kiewit is the only heavy and highway contractor which has been struck no others presently have contracts with the operating engineers' union. The contracts expired Jan. 1 and the companies have been negotiating with the union.

The next session under Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service sponsorship will be Monday.

Trade Program Is 'Partnership Base'

Nation Must Trade Or Fade, Says JFK

New Orleans (UPI)—President Kennedy Friday urged approval of his tariff-cutting program as a cornerstone of a trillion-dollar "Atlantic partnership" to stand as a bulwark against communism. The nation, he said, must "trade or fade."

In two speeches before cheering crowds in New Orleans, the President argued for his trade bill now embattled in Congress and expressed the hope that the school integration quarrel dividing this gulf port city will be settled peacefully.

The President spoke glowingly of a future economic and trade market that would provide more jobs for Americans and hold down inflation, while providing new markets for the goods produced in both America and Europe. But it is a two-way street, he said, and America cannot throw tariff barriers across it.

Pickets Walked

A few integrationists picketed the 3-hour presidential visit with placards. There were no disturbances and Kennedy appeared to enjoy his visit to this sunny, French-flavored city. The pickets drew laughs and sneers from many of the estimated 100,000 people who lined the streets to cheer the President.

The President flew off this afternoon for Eglin Air Force Base in northern Florida to witness a demonstration of air firepower. Then he was to go to Palm Beach.

Kennedy arrived by plane from Washington and rode in an open-top limousine with Gov. Jimmie Davis and Mayor Victor Schiro in a motorcade from Moisant Airport to the new $12-million Mississippi River wharf that symbolizes New Orleans' links with world trade. Police estimated there were 100,000 cheering people along the path.

Major Address

At the wharf, Kennedy delivered a major foreign trade address.

"We stand at a great divide," he said, "deciding whether to go forward or fall back — whether we are to trade or fade."

The trade bill before Congress, he said, would provide the tools for an "open partnership among all free nations . . . that will draw the whole non-communist world together with the strings of economic self-interest." He said the bill also will hold down inflation and create more jobs.

"That partnership will be specifically and initially expressed in terms of a genuine Atlantic partnership, between the Common Market of Europe and the common market of 50 United States," he said.

Lincoln, Wyoming Students Wesleyan May Day Rulers

Wesleyan University students Friday crowned Ingrid Sandall of Lincoln and Edward Stevens of Upton, Wyo., as May Queen and Student Prince.

The royal pair reigned at the traditional May Day festivities Friday afternoon. The royalty was selected by a vote of the student body.

Sixteen attendants accompanied the queen and prince. Ingrid, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold C. Sandall of Lincoln, is a senior, affiliated with Willard Sorority. She is a history major, minor in political science and German.

Stevens, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Stevens of Upton, Wyo., has also attended Denver University. Stevens is a physical sciences major with a minor in physical education. He is unaffiliated.

Twenty Wesleyan coeds participated in the traditional Maypole dance which opened the festivities. New members of Cardinal Key and Blue Key, honorary societies, were named and the intersorority and interfraternity songs were held.

U.S. Considers Cutback In Output Of A-Weapons

Stockpile Is In Tens Of Thousands

Washington (UPI) — The United States, which numbers its nuclear weapons in the tens of thousands, was reported Friday to be cutting back plans for future production.

Under the reported plan, the cutback would come mainly in production of smaller atomic weapons designed for Army battlefield use.

The Defense Department, which orders weapons from the Atomic Energy Commission, refused comment on grounds the government does not discuss its nuclear weapons stockpiles.

Deputy Defense Secretary

Roswell L. Gilpatrick said in a speech last October, however, that this country had "tens of thousands" of strategic and tactical vehicles for delivering nuclear weapons, "and, of course, we have more than one warhead for each vehicle."

Impressive Array

The great size of the weapons stockpile, ranging in destructive force from a fraction of a kiloton to about 25 megatons, probably was a key consideration in the decision to cut back future orders. A kiloton is the equal of 1,000 tons of TNT in destructive force. A megaton equals one million tons of TNT.

The United States has been stockpiling atomic weapons for more than 15 years, starting with big atomic bombs and gradually spreading into whole families of tactical weapons for ground and amphibious forces.

In the late years of the previous Eisenhower administration, there were defense officials who recognized there eventually would have to be a survey of weapons needs and probably a thinning out of orders.

Funds Request Hiked

The latest budget submitted to Congress, however, continued to call for increasing nuclear weapons production. The AEC requested $742 million for such weapons in the fiscal year starting next July 1, compared with $630 million in the current year. The Kennedy administration has shown concern over the spread of nuclear weapons and this may have been another point in the background of the reported new decision.

Boy Falls From Car; Hurts Slight

A 14-year-old boy suffered only a bump on his head after he fell off the top of a car near 61st and Kearney late Friday.

Early Saturday, Dean Busing of 4326 Baldwin was listed in good condition at Bryan Memorial Hospital.

Police said the boy was riding atop a car driven by Rosemary I. Swartz, 17, of 4000 Cornhusker Hwy., Lot 102G.

Purse Lost

Betty A. Law of 6950 Dudley lost her purse containing a $177 check, police said. She had put the purse on top of her car while loading it at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education. Police said she drove off; the purse fell off her car somewhere in north Lincoln.

No Extension Granted '58-'59 Sorghum Crop

By GLENN KREUSCHER

The Nebraska Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service committee received the final decision from Washington that no extension will be granted on the resale of 1958 and 1959 crop year grain sorghum.

Other grains for which the ASCS will not offer resale will be 1960 and 1961 rye, 1958 barley, 1957 and 1958 wheat and 1956 and 1957 corn.

All farmers having price support grain on their farms in this category will be required to redeem their loans or deliver their grain in satisfaction of their price support loan, according to Albert A. Francke, state ASCS chairman.

Position Good

Francke said, however, that Nebraska farmers are in excellent position as far as farm stocks are concerned and particularly as to farm stocks that are covered by price supports.

At the beginning of the 1962

America Fires Fourth Nuclear Shot In Pacific

... Soviet Counter-Blasting Expected Soon

Washington (AP)—The United States fired No. 4 of its Pacific nuclear test shots Friday and cocked an ear for the expected resumption of Russian tests.

Government officials alerted U.S. detection stations to keep their instruments tuned for the new series of Soviet nuclear explosions said that Premier Khrushchev said would follow the start of U.S. testing in the atmosphere.

The United States began its current series a week ago last Wednesday after the Russians refused to agree to a test ban safeguarded by inspections.

The Soviets are now expected to start counter-blasting even though their scientists may still be working on the delivery programs, which started April 1 for wheat and grain sorghums, there were approximately 245,576,000 bushels of farm-stored price support grain in Nebraska, Francke said.

Of this amount, he added, 228,820,000 bushels were eligible for resale. The older grain which the Commodity Credit Corporation decided should be delivered and placed in merchandising position amounted to only 16,656,000 bushels.

Increase Expected

"This left approximately 93% of the price support grain on farms eligible for resale, and it is expected that the amount carried under resale into the 1963 crop year will be considerably higher than 1962," said Francke.

Considerable discussion and farmer resistance to moving farm-stored grain to terminal elevators was countered by ASCS reasoning that with the tremendous amount of grain that is being exported, it has been necessary to move the older grain in merchandising position in order for the USDA to sell grain in an orderly manner over the coming months.

LT&T Phone Rates Drop On May 21

New rates designed to reduce the difference between interstate and intrastate day telephone charges have been approved for the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. by the Nebraska Railway Commission.

The Lincoln firm had asked the commission to approve reductions bringing their rates in line with new ones which the northwestern bell telephone Co. of Omaha will put into effect Sunday.

The new rates for the Lincoln Company became effective May 21. They will cut the maximum disparity in day station-to-station calls between interstate and intrastate (completely within the state) from 20 cents to 10 cents.

The reductions will occur in most calls of more than 50 miles. There will be reductions of 10 cents for about 60% of the mileages, and reductions of 5 cents in about 30% of the mileages in the state.

Other changes will be made in person-to-person and overtime rates in order to maintain a consistent relationship to the new station-to-station schedule.

Person-to-person rates will be reduced 5 cents or 10 cents in about 50% of the mileages, with a few increases.

Some examples of the changes in day rates for 3-minute calls:

Lincoln to Hastings: station-to-station rate will drop from 75 to 65 cents, while the person-to-person rate will drop from $1.20 to $1.15.

Titov Does A Little Boasting

Baltimore (AP) — The Soviet cosmonaut, Gherman Titov, hustled through America's biggest steel mill at Sparrows Point Friday, but said "it is well known our mills are bigger than these."

Titov, shaking hands and signing autographs with the aplomb of a politician, immediately softened his statement, however, by adding, "but you had better ask the experts."

Titov, his wife and a party of about 20 motored from Washington to Bethlehem Steel Co.'s Sparrows Point plant, about a dozen miles southeast of Baltimore, for the inspection tour. They ate lunch downtown with a minimum of fanfare, then headed back for Washington.

Titov appeared more interested in the workers — there are more than 30,000 of them at the huge plant — than in the steel mill itself. He peeled away from his tour on several occasions to chat with the workers, sign autographs, pass out picture postcards of himself or to give away small model space craft.

Titov mentioned the Russian mill at Magnitogorsk in the southern Urals when claiming that Soviet mills are larger.

A member of Titov's party said a few minutes later that Magnitogorsk "had a production rate of 8 1/2 million American tons."

Bethlehem Steel officials say Sparrows Point, however, has a capacity of 9 million ingot tons.

JAYNE AND MICKEY ARE RECONCILED

Hollywood (AP) — Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay, to the surprise of almost no one, reconciled Friday.

The headline happy actress and her strongman husband established a new Modern Hollywood record for brevity of a divorce action. Less than 24 hours elapsed between the time the suit was filed Thursday and the make-up.

"We have resolved our differences," Jayne announced at a news conference. "I will withdraw the divorce suit as soon as I get around to it."

It was a divorce action unique in Hollywood history. The two spent the night under the same spacious roof.

"I loved Mickey just as much yesterday afternoon when I filed the suit as I do now," she said.

The couple had their first big fight Thursday. The word "divorce" was uttered by Jayne. The words, "Go ahead," by Hargitay.

The two argued over whether to take the children with them to Rome or not.

"Mickey got jealous over my concern for the children," she said. "He thought I was more interested in them than him. When I filed for the divorce, it brought everything to a decision."

"He apologized and the children will go with us. This thing is over."

Police Report Boy Beaten

A 14-year-old boy was assaulted twice in the Gateway Shopping Center parking lot late Friday, police said. One of the two suspected assailants was apprehended.

Investigating officers said Tim W. Mowrey of 4111 Everett was struck about the head more than 15 times by two older teenagers.

Police said Mowrey was riding with friends in Bethany when their car started to go around an accident and was halted by a boy standing in the middle of the street. The boy refused to move when asked to do so by Mowrey, police added.

The boy moved when a policeman told him to, but he and the suspected assailant later chanced across Mowrey and his friends at Gateway where the assault took place.

C&NW Given OK To Drop Platte River-Seward Branch

Washington (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission authorized the Chicago & North Western Railway Co. Friday to abandon its branch line between the Platte River and Seward, Neb.

The commission also approved the railroad's proposal to obtain trackage rights on

Rejection Of Power Plan Irks Leaders

Omaha (AP) — Utilities officials and resources development leaders said Friday they were shocked at the action of the Department of Interior turning down a power interchange proposal offered by 14 utilities including the Omaha Public Power District (OPPD).

The utilities group had offered the arrangement to firm up hydroelectric power produced at Missouri River installations. The Department of Interior instead approved a $36,600,000 REA loan to the basin electric co-operative to build a 200,000 thermal generating plant near Garrison Dam in North Dakota, to be fueled by lignite excavated during the building of Garrison Dam.

C. F. Moulton, general manager of OPPD, said a Bureau of Reclamation study committee had found months ago that the power interchange plan was feasible.

James R. Smith of Omaha, vice president of the Mississippi Valley Association, called the action "another step in a headlong rush toward federal domination of electricity in the Missouri Basin."

He said the action is "wasteful and unnecessary; it cannot be based on sound economics." Smith declared it would cost the REA's $130 million to accomplish what the 14 utilities would have done at no cost to the federal government.

the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy between Seward and Lincoln, Neb., and to build connecting tracks linking the lines of the two railroads at Seward and Lincoln.

The ICC found that the abandonment would eliminate annual operating losses of about $80,000 for Chicago & North Western and would enable it to avoid a $170,000 expense to rehabilitate the line.

The proposal had been protested by the Nebraska Railway Commission, some shippers and railway labor groups.

"Abandonment may inconvenience some shippers, but this is not an unusual result of railroad abandonments," the ICC said.

It added provisions would be made to protect any employees adversely affected by the abandonment of the 55-mile line.

Entire Auburn Police Force Leaves Posts

Lincoln Star Special

Auburn — The walkout of all 4 policemen here has left the city temporarily dependent upon the sheriff's office for its only law protection.

Chief of Police James Adamson and his 3 other officers resigned together as the reorganized City Council convened for its first session. Effective immediately, the quitting notices also included Elmer Volker, Clarence Teten and Dick Behrends.

Adamson declined comment as to the reasons for the action, but it is known there had been considerable friction between the police and some councilmen. Mayor Floyd Pohlman could not be reached immediately for comment.

At the same meeting at which the resignations came, the mayor had called attention to a city ordinance which makes the police chief directly responsible to his office only.

Sheriff George Kelley and his deputy, Vern Hunzeker, have indicated they will concentrate their duties in the town until temporary officers can be found.

Surprise Nomination Sparks Nebraska AAUW Convention

Grand Island (AP) — A surprise nomination for president of the Nebraska State Division of the American Association of University Women was made Friday as the AAUW group held its first business session of the two-day convention.

In addition to the slate of candidates presented by the nominating committee, there was a floor nomination for Mrs. Alexander McKie Jr., of Omaha.

The nominating committee slate was headed by Mrs. Charles Dunn of Fremont. Others on the slate are: Mrs. Warren Ekloff, Minden, first vice president, and Mrs. Ben Vanover, Holdrege, recording secretary. The election will be held Saturday.

About 100 were registered Friday and another 100 are expected during the day.

The board met earlier and the general session Friday morning included business and workshop sessions. Richard E. Spelts Jr. of Grand Island was the noon luncheon speaker. Following his talk on Grand Island's "Golden Age Village," the delegates toured the development for elderly persons and attended a tea at the site.

Mrs. William H. Chambers of Los Alamos, N.M., delivered the banquet address Friday evening.

Union College's Homecoming Activities Climax Saturday

Homecoming activities at Union College increased in tempo Friday, building up to the climax of the 3-day event — a Saturday full of music and worship.

Religious services at the College View Seventh Day Adventist Church are scheduled for the alumni at 8:25 a.m. and 10:55 a.m. There will be a Sabbath school at the auditorium at 9:45 a.m., a sacred band concert at 3:30 p.m. and the Department of Music's "Promenade" at 8:45 p.m.

Seventeen overseas workers in 10 countries were honored in the traditional "Hanging of the Golden Cords" Friday night.

Earlier Dr. Conrad N. Rees, a Union alumnus (Class of 1931) and president of Southern Missionary College at Chattanooga, Tenn., made an observation on Russian-U.S. competition.

The "anything you can do I can do better" theme, he said, runs "the risk of annihilation."

He spoke to the 19th annual honors convocation, at which Miss Ruth Atkinson of Little Rock, Ark., was named winner of the $100 alumni merit scholarship.

The following students, who

Why can't the City force the owners of bad housing to bring it up to standard without urban renewal?

Structures which were built before 1936 are exempt from the Building Code. But even if the City had ordinances severe enough to force owners of this housing to act, where would the owners get necessary loans if the property was capable of being repaired? And if it was too far gone for that, where would they get the money to rebuild on the site after it was cleared? Lenders look with no favor on hit-or-miss renewal efforts in areas of bad housing.

And what about the renters of this property? Without the safeguards of urban renewal, the results for them could be drastic and inhumane.

What will happen in Lincoln if urban renewal is defeated?

Despite all the efforts of public and private enterprise, the number of deteriorating and dilapidated housing units in Lincoln increased from 5,206 in the 1950 census report to 8,974 in the census of 1960.

Without urban renewal to stop this trend, it is virtually inevitable that we will have upwards of 15,000 such homes by 1970.

And whenever property deteriorates the tax value goes down for the owner and the tax bill goes up for everybody else.

Crash Kills Lincolmites In Kansas

A Lincoln couple, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Dornberger of 1421 So. 26th, were killed in a head-on traffic collision on U.S. 54 east of Meade, Kan.

Injured in the crash were Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Perkins of Spearman, Texas.

The Dornbergers were on their way to Carlsbad, N.M., to visit Mrs. Dornberger's 93-year-old mother, who is ill.

Mr. Dornberger had been a soil scientist with the U.S. Social Conservation Service in Lincoln since 1953. He had been with the federal service since 1934.

A native of Talmage, Kan., he had worked in Kansas, Colorado, Texas, Wyoming and Nebraska.

Mrs. Dornberger had been employed at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Gov. Frank Morrison expressed regret at her death, saying:

"Mrs. Dornberger worked many long hours for us last November to make our youth safety conference a success.

"It seems ironic that now she would die in the sudden violence of a traffic accident," he said.

Surviving Mr. and Mrs. Dornberger is their daughter, Martha, a student at Doane College, Crete.

Minor Fire Hits Seaton's Plane; No One Injured

Hastings (UPI) — A minor fire broke out Friday in the luggage compartment of a light plane in which Fred Seaton, Republican gubernatorial candidate was a passenger. There were no injuries and no significant damage.

"This campaign is really getting hot," Seaton quipped as he hurriedly climbed out of the smoking craft at the airport here.

Pilot William Latta of Hastings said a short in a battery cable ignited a pair of overalls and Seaton's raincoat which were in the luggage compartment directly behind Seaton's seat in the two-place plane.

State, National PTA Platforms Approved

Omaha (AP) — A majority of Parent-Teacher Associations in Nebraska have approved the platforms issued by the state and national organizations, the Nebraska congress was told Friday.

Mrs. Beechner

They voted 114-7 for a proposal that all funds appropriated under federal aid "should go to publicly controlled, tax-supported schools only."

Comment Solons

Twenty-six units reported no action on 15 national areas and 24 reported no action on each of 20 proposals at the state level.

In another resolution the group commended the state legislature for a resolution endorsing the need for a state educational television survey, and the governor for his information of a committee to study educational television.

On the national program, the widest margin was a vote of 129-3 for a proposal which said in part: "All federal child welfare legislation should include provisions that will insure maximum local control."

In the area of federal support for education the units were given 9 areas in which to express approval or disapproval.

The units voted 114-7 for a recommendation calling for equalizing the educational opportunities of Indian children "with those of other American children."

The units voted 99-27 for a

Issues Not Yet Clear

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The Nebraska State Medical Association laid plans toward two ends at its just-concluded annual meeting in Lincoln. It has dedicated itself to opposition to the Kennedy plan of Social Security protection against medical expenses in old age and has announced plans for seeking improvement in the health education curriculum of the public schools. On medical care it took an affirmative position on the Kerr-Mills bill which provides state-federal matching funds to meet the health problems of the aged.

The state organization intends to pursue Nebraska approval of the Kerr-Mills bill in the 1962 session of the Legislature. It was rather remarkable that the Legislature turned this program down last year and there is little doubt that a concentrated effort by the medical group would result in its passage. It is not that Kerr-Mills is much of a program, but it is used as a weapon against any Social Security approach to medical care. The Legislature will probably never like even Kerr-Mills but it would take it if it were convinced that such action might help shut off the Kennedy program — known as the King-Anderson bill.

It is important that people realize there are two provisions to the bill advocated by the medical group. Kerr-Mills provides funds in one category for those persons now on old age assistance and funds in another category for those with incomes high enough to exclude them from such assistance.

The states can accept either the old age assistance provision alone or both plans combined. It is highly doubtful that the Nebraska Legislature would ever approve anything beyond help for those on old age assistance. A little more than half the states have engaged in participation in the Kerr-Mills program but very few of them have used the "medically indigent" provisions for those outside of old age assistance.

And those states which have adopted the Kerr-Mills plan have widely different provisions on both the assistance and indigent factors. The bill in the last session of the Nebraska Legislature calling for Kerr-Mills participation is reported to have contained the absolute minimum provisions to qualify. Thus, it would include small payments for those on assistance and nothing for anyone else. This is one of the major drawbacks to the Kerr-Mills plan. It provides for no equity among the states and there is no assurance that it will do a single thing for millions of elderly who need assistance. Philosophically, we fail to see the great distinction that is made by the medical profession.

The Social Security approach, which would cover millions more people than would Kerr-Mills, is said by the medical groups and other opponents to be socialized medicine. How government financing of medical care can be socialized medicine in one case and free enterprise in another is something we fail completely to understand. Basically, the Kerr-Mills approach is a welfare approach — a plan that gives a dole to paupers. These are the cases which the medical profession already boasts of covering with its own charity work, so the plan would be of little additional help, particularly in Nebraska where the most niggardly plan possible would be adopted.

The approach under Social Security is not all perfection but it is a long way ahead of the Kerr-Mills bill. It would undoubtedly permit some people to receive medical care payments who might not need such payments. But for the vast majority of those it would help, it would be a humane, needed and dignified assistance.

The basic difference in the two bills is whether the approach is a welfare one or one of social consciousness. The Social Security idea is predicated on the belief that our society does not have to accept old age as a curse — that old age can still be a rewarding time of life — that we needn't work all our lives only to die in a state of poverty.

The only question with the medical groups is whether they are the weaker in their affinity to Kerr-Mills or their opposition to King-Anderson. As for the improvement of health education in the schools, the subject needs detailed analysis to determine its value. The Lincoln schools are already actively engaged in a study of health education. One speaker at the state medical meeting seemed to say that work in this area will prove that medical problems can be handled without federal intervention. What that is supposed to mean we have no idea but there certainly is no correlation between health education and medical care for the aged.

However, there can be little argument with making health education in the schools as good as it can possibly be. There should be caution only that the final determination of program be left entirely in the hands of the educators. This is the only way in which we can maintain the kind of balance in our system that is demanded.

Eichmann's Discovery

Adolph Eichmann, the Nazi leader, who perhaps even outranks Genghis Khan in the number of unarmed, peaceable people, has come to a grave conclusion at long last. He has decided that anti-Semitism is wrong.

Some 6 million Jews perished in Eichmann's death factories during World War II. He was prevented from making his success total only because the Nazis lost the war and he had to take cover. Presently he is under sentence of death at the hands of the Israeli state.

In jail, awaiting the final events of his life, he told his wife, who visited him briefly, that anti-Semitism was the fatal mistake and great error of the Third Reich.

We agree it was a dreadful crime and a great mistake, but there were more things with his record than murder.

By his Nazi it is obvious that Herr Eichmann is a man of small capacity and scanty soul. He probably told the truth at his trial when he described himself as the instrument of bigger people. That must have been true for had he been bigger he would have preferred expulsion from the party and death in the front lines to the hideous work he accepted along with the trifling rank and status that went with it as a cop.

If he is of service to us now it is in his belated testimony for decency and tolerance. It is not that most of us are not already convinced of that, but that as the killer of so many he is to be accepted as a convincing witness.

Nasser Wishes A Loan

The West has made the road rocky to friendship with President Nasser of Egypt. But there is a sign of smoother times ahead.

Mr. Nasser is negotiating with the West for a $200 million aid package. He hopes to get that much from the International Monetary Fund, from the United States, West Germany, Italy and probably Great Britain. And what is more, these Western powers mean to grant the loan. If the application has validity the money should be forthcoming.

First, the renewal of negotiations with the West indicates a change in Egyptian policy. Since the late Secretary of State Dulles rejected the Egyptian plea for the construction of Aswan dam, Nasser has done business extensively with Soviet Russia and its satellites. Evidently he has escaped the toils of Red ambitions and does not mean to be engulfed by communist influence. Egypt and the Near East make a distinction between communism and socialism, and they are one and all dedicated to nationalism. They have no more desire to become a part of a monolithic communist empire than they have to return to colonial status. Their neutralism is an expected product of such determinations. It is also true that the initial attraction to communism was most greatly based on the opinion that it offered a quicker way of modernizing the arab lands than democracy. But that conviction is wearing thin in the light of experience. It took time and events to make such points clear and it has been educational to the West. The new loan proposal offers a way to construct a more realistic and mutually beneficial relationship with Egypt and should not be underestimated.

What Is Peronism Today?

From The New York Times

Political movements are like receptacles — outwardly they look the same, but the contents change from time to time. Peronism in 1962 is different from Peronism as it was during the dictatorship of Juan Peron from 1946 to 1955.

It could not be the same, because Argentina has changed. The movement originally was a combination of a military dictatorship headed by General Peron and his histrionic wife, Evita, with the "descamisados" or shirtless ones. It had a vague ideological framework called Justicialism, which was modeled on the Corporative Fascism of Mussolini's Italy. The power came from the army and police; the popular support from the working classes.

To keep that support, Peron pampered the workers with social services and ever-rising wages. The inflation, extravagance, corruption and inefficiency of the regime were such that by 1955 Argentina was on the verge of bankruptcy. But—and this is a key to the continuing strength of Peronism—General Peron was driven out of power before the effects of his maladministration were felt by the workers. Thus, today, the worker looks back to the "happy days" of Peronism.

However, the power that came from the dictator, the army and the police is no longer there. In fact, the top leaders of the armed forces are violently anti-Peronist. Peronism, therefore, is a body without a head or arms. Doctrinally, it remains a Fascist—or Falangist—movement. In this sense, it could be argued that what Argentina is seeing today is a struggle of Right-wing military leaders, landowners and businessmen (in Argentina they are called "the oligarchy") against a Right-wing popular movement.

The situation, however, is in reality much more complicated than that. There are many military officers, especially below the ranks of general and colonel, who are pro-Peronist. So are many landowners in the northwest. So are many in the professional and intellectual classes. Peronism has a considerable middle-class element, as well as a working-class one.

Harris Play For AT & T Balked

WASHINGTON — Congressman Oren Harris of Arkansas, staunch friend of the American Telephone and Telegraph monopoly, used shrewd tactics to push the satellite communications giveaway through the House of Representatives.

Harris chose the Monday right after the Easter vacation to report the bill out of his committee for early floor debate. One congressman, however, was too alert for him — William F. Ryan, the live-wire Manhattan Democrat. Being a member of the Space Committee, Ryan knew what was happening, and unlike some other New York congressmen who spend about half the week in Brooklyn and on Broadway — especially Mondays — Ryan got back from his Easter holiday on time.

And in order to prevent any rush consideration of the satellite giveaway, he sent out a "dear colleague" letter to a group of congressmen who are usually interested in fighting the public's battles, inviting them to a meeting. The response was not too favorable.

Those who showed up were Edith Green of Oregon, Clem Miller of California, Bob Kastenmeier of Wisconsin, Charles Joelsohn of New Jersey, all Democrats, together with the administrative assistants of Ken Hechler of West Virginia and Al Ullman of Oregon.

Not all agreed to make a fight. Most, however, felt that when the taxpayers had spent several billions to develop a satellite, it should not be handed over to American Tel and Tel or any other group of corporations.

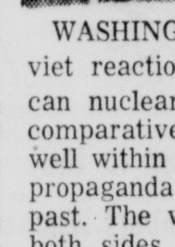

Down in the deep South you don't find many enthusiasts for John F. Kennedy. In Natchez, they ask hopefully, "Isn't Kennedy going to be a one-term president?"

In New Orleans, a Catholic priest, the first Catholic president has few friends. In Mississippi, Jim Coleman, who was a fine governor of that state, may have trouble when he runs again because he has been loyal to Kennedy in Birmingham, Ala., at a Democratic dinner, every Democratic president in history was praised up to and through Franklin D. Roosevelt. But there was no praise for Harry Truman who first raised the integration issue or for Kennedy who carried it further. Both Alabama senators, plus eight of the 10 congressmen were present, but none mentioned John F. Kennedy — not even Sen. John Sparkman, whose son-in-law, Captain Tazewell Shepard, is White House naval aide, and whose administrative assistant, John Horne, was named by JFK as small business administrator.

Can't See End Of Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON — The Soviet reaction to the American nuclear tests has been comparatively mild and well within the frame of the propaganda attacks of the past. The whole process on both sides of the divide is becoming as formalized as the spear-shaking ritual of African tribesmen.

How soon the Soviets will start their new series and how long it will last no one here seems to know. But it is likely to overlap the American tests which will continue for at least two months more.

The word is being passed around, however, that when both series have been completed there will be an end to further testing in the atmosphere. The government may announce that it foresees no need for any tests other than those conducted underground, which produce no fallout. It is not impossible that Washington and Moscow may make an agreed announcement to that effect, although this is more remote.

The two nuclear giants are increasingly aware of the profound disquiet caused by the tests which are evidence of the spiraling nuclear arms race. When the Soviets broke the moratorium last year with a massive test series the United States Information Agency pulled out every stop.

The U.S. broadcasts, zeroed in with special force on the communist bloc to try to get through the jamming, quoted Premier Khrushchev on the evils of fallout and how the Soviet Union would never again add to the haz-

ON TARGET

Mansfield is not to be outdone.

Seems Liz has dominated the headlines for some time, moving in and out of hospitals and villas at a record pace, even for her.

A quarter-page ad on the cover of the current Variety is determined to make the most of it for the cast-off Eddie.

"Eddie Fisher Sings Arrivederci Roma," the ad trumpets. Another record.

The counterattack was simple: the endowed Miss Jayne left Mickey holding the barbells for 24 hours. Then, well—what a difference a day makes!

Ah, into each life a little rain must fall.

The public may yet be served by the intensive efforts to put Nebraska's public power pieces together in a more orderly pattern.

Whether it comes to pass or not, the agreement by Platte and Loup to dissolve their partnership represents some gain. At least they agreed.

This has been a difficult task for each agency — for each has entirely different primary interests in a totally different economy. Each has had to consider its own problems first, and justly so, we think.

Other gains appear obvious.

Settle pending litigation out of the courts is a serious proposition, not just an exercise in frustration undertaken to placate both the public and the legislature.

Power leaders privately admit that they have little choice but to settle among themselves. Otherwise, the full power of the unhappy public, Legislature and press will fall upon the entire industry. The results could be chaotic.

The legislative committee assigned to propose a solution to long-standing conflicts is applying new pressure designed to nudge power agencies toward a settlement.

Success of the industry-represented Nebraska Public Power Committee may well be determined May 15 when it meets in regular monthly session.

At that time, Ralph Foreman's subcommittee on retail service areas will bring in its report for consideration. A unanimous decision by the 9-member committee is necessary to get action. Much will hang on this reckoning.

From a strictly journalistic standpoint, an agreement may sadly go largely unnoticed. It seems that May 15 is Election Day—and the headlines will be dominated by something other than power.

For a public relations standpoint, they could have picked a better day to meet. From a press relations standpoint, they could hardly have picked a worse day. Ah, into each life a little rain must fall.

A reminder that Nebraska Day at the World's Fair is May 25.

Musical highlights for the event will be provided by the Ravenna High School band and Nebraska's lovely first lady. Former Nebraskans now living in Seattle will make a Cornhusker information booth—and exhibits will include an eye-opener (one million silver dollars) by Behlen of Columbus.

Lincoln is in on the act too — Notifier is providing $50,000 worth of fire detection for the fair.

The governor will be honored at a luncheon by the Washington State Democratic committee and at a state dinner hosted by Governor Rosellini.

Mari Sandoz' new book will be on exhibit, and plans are in the works for an appearance by the SAC band and drill team from Offutt. That's just a sample.

Maj. Gen. Lyle Welch, adjutant general of the Nebraska National Guard, is chairman of the Nebraska Day Committee.

Funds are still needed to insure the day's success. Some $5,300 has been collected, about half short of the $10,000 goal.

A dollar (or more) sent to James Oliver at Ravenna will give you a part in the activities saluting your home state.

Further notes on the fair: 9 million admissions are expected during the 184-day run. Price tag on the whole show totals $100 million.

Elevator ascent to the Space Needle takes 43 seconds; the mile monorail trip from midtown to the fair takes 96 seconds.

Top-drawing midway show is a strip extravaganza which costs $18,000 a week to produce. Admission is 3 bucks. Into each life a little rayon must fall.

Gift From Norris

Lincoln, Neb.

An incident which occurred a half century ago was recalled at the "Old Timers" Shrine ceremonial held here Friday, May 4.

In the spring of 1912—almost exactly 50 years ago to the day—two young Republican candidates were standing on a depot platform in southeastern Nebraska, surrounded by a group of friends. The elder was George W. Norris of McCook. Having served as a member of the national House of Representatives a number of years, he had filed this time for nomination and election to the U.S. Senate.

The younger was Walter Kiechel, then of Johnson, a 26-year-old farmer and educator, an aspirant for a seat in the Senate of the State Legislature, then a two-house body. While Norris was campaigning in Kiechel's district, the two were traveling together.

As the candidates were boarding the train, one of the men on the platform shouted, "I hope to see both of you at the Shrine ceremonial in Lincoln next week!"

When they had taken their seats in the coach and the train was starting on its way, Norris commented that he hadn't known his companion was a Shriner.

"Oh, yes," Kiechel answered, "I joined two years ago."

"Then why aren't you wearing the emblem?" the congressman countered.

Kiechel's reply was to the effect that "pins cost money" and that he had not yet gotten around to buying one. This was long before Sessoris Temple embarked on its current custom of supplying a handsome emblem-pin gratis to each new member.

"Well, we'll fix that right now," retorted Norris, as he removed the pin he was wearing and inserted it in his seatmate's lapel. "Now, see that you wear it from now on!"

Both men were nominated and elected, Norris serving six consecutive terms as U.S. senator and earning fame for many projects he sponsored, among which the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature are but two examples. Kiechel served two terms as state senator, since which time he has never again held public office, although serving the Republican party faithfully behind the scenes.

In the intervening years, the two men were to have their differences, particularly after Norris broke with the Republican party, to serve his remaining congressional terms as an Independent. Notwithstanding, they remained on friendly terms.

And since that spring day 50 years ago, Walter Kiechel rarely has appeared in public without displaying in his coat lapel the Shrine emblem given him then by the late George W. Norris. He was wearing it Friday when, with six other "Old Timers," he was honored by Sessoris Temple at its spring ceremonial.

Lincoln, Neb.

Someone had better speak out about what everyone knows.

Last November the chief of my department in the Statehouse asked me and the other girls if we liked our jobs, and stated that if we were satisfied to work for Governor Morrison, then was the time to show it, and stood in front of the desk of each girl until she gave a contribution check. My check was payable to Governor Morrison. I have my cancelled check to prove what I say. Several other girls in the department made out checks by reason of this pressure.

Reaching Age 65, 14.4 More Years Await You

By ROBERT PETERSON
Q. "Why should I worry about what happens after 65? According to actuarial tables, the average life expectancy is only 70 years so there aren't many years so there aren't many years to worry about after reaching retirement age."
A. You're wrong. Life expectancy figures refer to the number of years which a baby born today can expect to live. If you survive the hazards of childhood, youth, and middle age and reach 65, the actuarial tables estimate that you'll live another 14.4 more years. And if you reach 79.4 they give you another 7.5 years.
Q. "I'm 74, and my son has offered to pay my passage for a visit to Belgium where I was born. I want very much to go back to see members of my family I haven't seen for half a century. But I get terribly seasick and I refuse to fly. What shall I do?"

A. Looks like there's no alternative unless you swim. I suggest you reconsider flying. Everybody's doing it and it's not very rational to reject this modern mode of transportation. If you're like most senior citizens you'll lose your apprehensions, and emerge air-minded after your first flight.
Q. "I'm 70, retiring next year, and our only son, 32, will take over the jewelry manufacturing firm I founded years ago. My wife says I should sign the business over to the boy and let him have it lock, stock, and bracelets as he's our only heir. But it seems to me that if he gets it this easily he won't appreciate it as much as if we make him work for it."
A. I agree with you. Why not tell him you'll split the profits with him for the first 5 years. Then if he makes a success of it you'll sign the firm over to him

5 years hence. It's very true that handing heirs a successful business on a silver platter often causes them to take less interest in the firm and its success than if they have to expend a little blood, sweat, and tears.
Q. "Maybe I'm just crotchety, but at 75 I find myself increasingly irritated by the quality of television, the rise of juvenile delinquency, the shoddy behavior of public officials, and the ridiculous emphasis everywhere on speed and glamor. I say things were better in the old days. What do you say?"
A. While you're dreaming about the old days don't forget the 14-hour working day, wages of $5 a day—if you were lucky—shoveling coal in the furnace, outdoor plumbing, flat tires every time you went 20 miles from home, and epidemics of flu, diphtheria, smallpox, and pneumonia. If you compare yesterday and today objectively I think you'll come to the conclusion that you're living in an era infinitely better than yesterday.

Peace Corps Says Schoolteacher Couldn't Learn Language

San Juan, Puerto Rico (AP)—The Peace Corps dropped Mrs. Janie Fletcher, 65, because she was unable to learn Portuguese, the language of Brazil, Peace Corps Training Director Grant Venn said Friday.

The Panhandle, Tex., schoolteacher had charged in a letter to Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., that she was cashed because she refused to run a mile before breakfast, do exercises and learn to swim with her feet tied together. Towers demanded a Congressional investigation.

Here, where Mrs. Fletcher underwent training in a group of Peace Corps candidates for Brazil, Training Director Venn said all candidates are asked to take part in strenuous activities. "But we do not expect 65-year-old women to perform the same feats as 20-year-old men."

"Most of the physical activity is limited to learning to float, not swim, with one's clothing, and some rock climbing," Venn said. "The rock climbing is meant mainly to build self-confidence, not muscle. Two other women Mrs. Fletcher's age completed the course at the same time."

The training director described Mrs. Fletcher as "a quiet, subdued person who stayed pretty much to herself."

No one likes to fail at anything but I can't understand why she is so bitter about the whole thing," Venn said. Venn's statement about Mrs. Fletcher's inability to learn Portuguese followed a denial in Washington Thursday by Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver that her dismissal was due to physical conditioning.

Shriver said one of the reasons for her dismissal was that "she had the lowest language facility" of the candidates for Brazil.

Sen. Tower put out a statement in Washington Friday calling the Peace Corps "callous and cavalier" because it dropped Mrs. Fletcher at what he called the last minute because of a language problem.

"I have every confidence in Mrs. Fletcher's account of her experience, embarrassment and humiliation,"

Tower said. He added he had received another letter from Mrs. Fletcher saying the Peace Corps had already shipped her clothing and linen to Brazil, and that "all I have is one suitcase of clothing."

Timothy J. Adams, acting Peace Corps information director, accused Tower of being "callous and cavalier" in handling the matter, by publicizing the case and forcing the Peace Corps to discuss the reasons Mrs. Fletcher was dropped.

Adams said earlier that insofar as the Peace Corps is concerned the Fletcher case was closed.

Normal College Debt Revamping To Be Reviewed

A report on the possibility of lumping the indebtedness of the 4 normal colleges and then refinancing the package will be made at the State Normal Board session Sunday and Monday at Chadron.

A subcommittee headed by E. K. Yanney of Lodgepole will discuss its findings.

At the beginning of the year the colleges had more than $10 million in unpaid bonds.

Normal board members hope that the recent experience of the University of Nebraska in refinancing its bonded indebtedness of more than $4 million could work to the teachers' colleges' advantage.

Another item on the board's agenda will be submission of institutional operating budgets for the coming year.

Allocations from state appropriations were made to the schools last month.

Each school can anticipate a greater non-tax income because of tuition increases effective next fall, Board Secretary Albin Larson noted.

Red Names Fade

NWU Convocation Honors 60 Students

More than 60 Nebraska Wesleyan University students were introduced at the annual Honors Convocation Friday morning and cited for academic achievements during the school year, including election to the honor societies: Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Mu Gamma, Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Gamma Mu and Sigma Pi Sigma.

Dr. James E. Miller Jr., of the University of Nebraska gave the main Honors Convocation address.

Dr. Miller told the Wesleyan students that American youth today can escape the phyness and selfishness, the degradation and corruption of mass culture if they possess some feeling of the infinite capacity and immortality of the self.

Dr. Miller, the Charles J. Mach Regents Professor of English and chairman of the English department at the university, is one of the foremost Whitman scholars in the world today.

"The genius of America," Dr. Miller said, "has always been that it has somehow avoided the extreme of individuality that moves toward anarchy and the extreme of equality that moves toward a deadly conformity."

He challenged the students to live up to the Walt Whitman ideal: "I am an acme of things accomplish'd, and I am an encloser of things to be."

Dr. Vance D. Rogers, Wesleyan president, delivered a short talk in recognition of the scholars, and Dr. Sam

Dahl, Dean of the College, presented the special awards. Presiding at the convocation was Dr. Harold E. Hall, chairman of the Wesleyan English department and chairman of the faculty Honors Committee.

Athens, Greece (AP)—The Atlantic Allies agreed Friday to continue negotiations with Russia on Berlin but served notice they would not be lulled into a dangerous sleep by Soviet soft talk on the communist-encircled city.

—The Netherlands criticized U.S. efforts to settle the Dutch-Indonesia dispute over Dutch-ruled West New Guinea, calling Washington's policy vacillating, informants said.

—The French made no secret of their dislike of nuclear policy proposals coming up Saturday at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting.

—Portugal's Foreign Minister A. Franco Nogueira made known his government's dissatisfaction with U.S. policy toward Portuguese Angola in a private meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

approval with a warning to keep up the alliance's nuclear guard.

Measures Taken

The Hague, Netherlands (AP)—A few Indonesian paratroopers were dropped near Fak-Fak, West New Guinea, the Dutch defense ministry announced, quoting information from the local population. It said "appropriate measures" were taken.

Why Grow Old?

On A Sound Basis

Josephine Lowman

Those of you who started following, "Why Grow Old's?" 9-Day Reducing Diet last Tuesday probably are beginning to feel and look better.

Reducing has been taken out of the three-ring circus and put on a sound basis. Today's good slimming diet is WELL-BALANCED, and often gives you more vitamins, minerals and proteins than the fair-to-average diet provides. Many women find that they have increased energy as they lose pounds.

Today I am going to give you the menus for both Sunday and Monday since you will not be able to shop on Sunday for Monday's food items.

The menus for Sunday:

BREAKFAST

Two slices crisp bacon
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
One-half grapefruit
Black coffee

DINNER

Chilled orange juice
Serving of baked or broiled chicken
Celery
Olives (only two or three)
One-half cup lima beans
One roll
Fresh fruit cup

SUPPER

Scrambled eggs
Lettuce and cucumber salad

One glass skimmed milk
The menus for Monday:

BREAKFAST

One-half grapefruit
One boiled egg
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON

Chicken sandwich (no butter — thin slices of whole wheat bread)
Sliced tomatoes or canned tomatoes

One glass skimmed milk
DINNER

Minute steak or chops
Salad of shredded cabbage and carrots

One-half cup spinach-greens or broccoli
One-half grapefruit

One glass skimmed milk
If you have missed some of the menus which have been published in your newspaper this week, or would like to have my complete 9-Day Reducing Diet which gives you a loss of from five to 10 pounds in a convenient booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of The Lincoln Star, Lincoln, Neb.

MISS JUDY HOKE

Announcement is being made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Chet Hoke of Elk Creek, of the engagement of their daughter, Judy, of Lincoln, to Gerald D. Bryant, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bryant of Humboldt. The wedding will take place in September.

A former student at the Lincoln School of Commerce, Miss Hoke is a member of Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Her fiance attended the University of Nebraska and is stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Dear Abby

Odd Sense of Humor

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: All my friends are either 16 or 17. I like my friends and want to keep them as friends, but here is my problem: My father wears a hair piece and when he walks by my friends, they say "bow wow" and "meow" and make fun of his hair piece. My father never says anything to them because he is too embarrassed. Abby, how can I tell my friends to quit making fun of my father?

BOTHERED

DEAR BOTHERED: Tell them that their sense of humor is off, and they are being cruel. They will understand if you will approach them seriously. P.S. Your father should take a long look at his hair piece.

DEAR ABBY: Many of your men readers, including myself, must agree with the prospective bridegroom who prefers twin beds. Women would be surprised to know how many men would rather sleep alone but who don't admit it for fear of being ridiculed. I think two people sleeping in one bed is the most stupid of all marriage customs. It was understandable in the log cabin days due to lack of space. But in this health-conscious age why should an intelligent adult put up with someone breathing in his face, kicking him in the stomach, arms and legs suddenly flung across his chest, snoring, cold feet and having one side of the bed slanted down because of weight difference? Can you explain it?

PENSI

DEAR PENSI: I haven't seen any surveys on how many couples sleep apart and, if so, whose idea it was. But I would guess that as many women prefer solo slumber as men. As for cold feet, flying arms and legs and snoring, it's the little woman who takes the beating.

DEAR ABBY: Take it from a G. I. who spent a year in Greenland: The only nose I rubbed among the Eskimos was my own!

"COLD PROPOSITION"

For a personal (unpublished) reply to your problem, send Abby a self-addressed stamped envelope.

FUN NEWS IN SUBURBIA

We hope PTA members are counting noses these days because we have more newcomers to the talcum powder set to introduce to suburbia neighbors. There also is news of a visitor, new residents, travelers and a barbecue party.

Opening lead — ace of diamonds.
This hand was played in a team match. At the first table, West opened with a diamond which East raised to two diamonds. You may not agree with the two diamond bid, and certainly a good case can be made for a response of two clubs instead. However, the East in this case was a sound player and apparently thought two diamonds was the best bid to make. Serious repercussions resulted from his choice, though it does appear that what eventually happened was rather an accident of fate.

The bidding carried on to five spades which West doubled. Having been supported twice in diamonds, West chose the ace of diamonds as his opening lead. This proved fatal because declarer ruffed, played a spade to the ace, discarded a club on the king of dia-

FRANCO DECLARES EMERGENCY IN SPAIN

Rights Are Cut To Halt Spread Of Coal Strike

Madrid (UPI) — The government Saturday decreed a state of emergency in Spain's 3 key mining and industrial provinces to halt the spread of a strike that threatened to become the nation's worst labor crisis since its civil war.

The emergency decree was made official by publication this morning in the State Gazette. Hours before, Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government warned an estimated 40,000 coal mine and industrial workers it might act to force them back to work.

But there were signs the walkout could spread throughout northern Spain.

3 Key Provinces

The 3 key provinces covered by the emergency decree were Asturias, the heart of the coal mining area, and the industrial centers of Vizcaya and Guipuzcoa.

By early Saturday morning, there were an estimated 40,000 workers on strike with another 30,000 idled because of it.

Reports from other key points in northern Spain indicated that another 10,000 to 12,000 workers might join the strike for higher wages Sunday or Monday.

No Incidents

No incidents of violence have been reported because of the strike, which began 18 days ago in Asturias. However, the government has reinforced police units throughout the area.

A naval factory in Bilbao was rimmmed with machine-gun emplacements and patrolled by grenade-armed police, some of them rushing in from the capital. About 5,800 workers in the factory walked off their jobs last Thursday.

The emergency decree suspended parts of the country's "bill of rights." It suspended the process of habeas corpus, set up mail censorship and restricted freedom of movement. The decree gave police the right to search homes without warrants.

Not Since 1958

Not since 1958, when a similar strike began to spread across the country, had the government imposed such steps "to safeguard within the law the general interest."

The walkout began April 18 when about 16,000 coal miners walked off their jobs to protest lagging wage negotiations between syndicate leaders and mine owners.

Last week the government approved a boost in the price of coal. But the miners said they would stay out until they got assurances any added revenues would be used to give them higher pay.

Mrs. Brooks To Concentrate On Lincoln, Omaha

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Mrs. Ralph G. Brooks has completed an intensive tour of the southern two tiers of Nebraska counties.

The last leg of the tour took her into southeastern communities, including Syracuse, Nebraska City, Tecumseh and Auburn.

Mrs. Brooks conducted a door-to-door campaign through downtown streets, appeared on radio programs and addressed a farm group at a livestock sale in Syracuse.

She will concentrate her campaign in Lincoln and Omaha next week.

House Trailer Battered In Crash

A smashed house trailer and battered car resulted from a sideswiping accident 3 miles east of Dunbar on Highway 2. C. M. Folks of Houston, Tex., (on ground) sustained back injuries, believed not serious, as he was passed by a truck driven by Mark Kreifels of Nebraska City.

The car and 30-foot house trailer careened down an embankment without upsetting, while the truck remained on the road with little damage. Comforting Folks here is his wife, who had been following in a second car. (Star Staff Photo.)

Misco Rescinds Money Order Rule

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

State Banking Director Ralph Misko Friday rescinded a cease and desist order prohibiting supermarkets from selling money orders in Nebraska provided the companies meet the conditions set out in an attorney general's opinion.

The supermarkets involved are Safeway Stores and Hinky-Dinky Stores.

Misko said there was no problem involved with Safeway Stores because that firm sells American Express Company money orders which is licensed to do business in Nebraska.

Hinky-Dinky Stores will be permitted to continue selling money orders as soon as Republic Money Orders, Inc. of Dallas, Tex., the company which handles its money orders, registers with the secretary of state to do business in Nebraska.

Misko said if Republic did not register, he would have to issue a restraining order, but said he was "sure" the company would do so.

'Different Situation'

The banking director issued the cease and desist order March 15 on the basis of a 1960 opinion from the attorney general's office, but a change had been effected since then in the manner in which the money orders were handled, thus presenting a "factual situation" which is subtly different, the new opinion stated.

In the 1960 opinion, it was held that a retail store engaging in the business of selling its own money orders was engaged in the business of receiving "deposits," a function prohibited to non-bankers.

Agent Of Buyer

Under the opinion rendered Friday, it was held that the nature of the money order instrument being handled by the two food chains had been so changed as to make the seller — the food stores — an agent of the buyer instead of an issuer.

"The transaction, because of the agency relationship created by reservation in the contract of sale, does not fall within the prohibitions set forth in our earlier opinion as constituting a 'deposit,'" the opinion said.

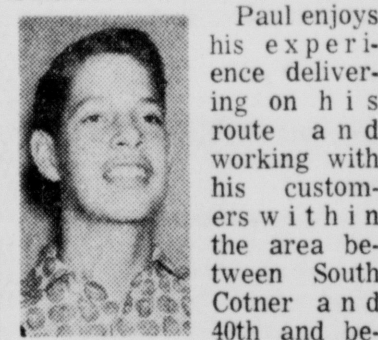

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. John E. Wendstrand, said that office was in agreement with the Banking Department that this particular business should be subject to regulation, but noted this is a matter for the Legislature.

Misko said he has no plans to sponsor such legislation, stating that any such regula-

Morrison Urges Comprehensive State Soil, Water Study

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

Gov. Frank Morrison Friday recommended a state-financed comprehensive study as a "first step toward the development of a master plan of water and soil conservation and utilization" in Nebraska.

The study should be ordered by the 1963 Legislature "and should be funded to the extent needed to do the job," Morrison said in a statement directed to the Legislative Council Committee on Soil and Water Conservation.

There are many agencies interested directly in water, the governor said, and the proposed study should cover the areas in which these agencies are working, the plans they have, the development they have done and the problems that are on the horizon.

The late Gov. Ralph G. Brooks instituted a similar study following the spring floods of 1960, but the report from the various agencies was not completed until after his death and has never been fully utilized.

'Don't Dare Wait'

In his statement, Morrison said, "We cannot and dare not wait any longer. Questions of priority of water use, possible chemical pollution of ground water, need for water pollution control and the various plans for industrial, agricultural and municipal water supplies have been raised and will become real issues in the future.

"There need not be dispute or unsound use of water if we exercise our knowledge and responsibility in facing this fact."

Agencies listed by the governor as being interested in water included the State Water Resources Department; State Soil and Water Conservation Committee; University of Nebraska Geological Survey; State Department of Health; State Game Commission; NU College of Agriculture; the various power agencies; U.S. Bureau of Reclamation and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

"It is an oversimplification to say that these agencies must be coordinated in their efforts," Morrison said, "and yet it is so obvious that this should have been done in the past and must be done in the near future."

Urges Limitations

Sen. Don Thompson of McCook, member of the legislative committee, said he was not adverse to Morrison's proposal, but stated that if a coordinating group were formed, its powers should be somewhat limited.

He said he would be against giving such a group authority to establish timetables for the development of the individual projects in the

In other action, the committee asked State Water Resources Director Dan Jones Jr. to make a study of the state law regarding a prohibition in digging wells that will interfere with the water flow of streams and rivers in the state.

Trustees Approve Dissolution

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer
Sanitary District trustees Friday gave preliminary approval to the proposed agreement for dissolution Sept. 1.

The agreement with the City of Lincoln and Walt-Wahoo Watershed District calls for division of the district's responsibilities, real property and assets between the two subdivisions.

Board Atty. Max Kier reports that the attorneys and engineers of the Salt-Wahoo and city have approved the preliminary draft and that detailed exhibits are being prepared.

Board members agreed to accept a city statement of policy that the 5 district employees will be hired by the city, but were critical of this wasn't specifically included in the proposed agreement.

Stevens Creek Study

District engineer Richard DeVries reported that the Black & Veatch engineering study of sewage disposal needs in the Stevens Creek watershed and eastern edge of the city is due by June 1.

"It's going to shake the city on its sewage disposal plant," said board member Rodger Bergquist.

The board hinted the report would show some antiquated portions of the plant need extensive rehabilitation.

In other action, the board authorized preparation of plans and contract for an estimated $3,500 sewer to serve Capitol Beach at the property owners' expense.

Also approved was Sewer

District 49 for 41st from Colfax to Turner Ave. and bids on the project set for June 15.

Church Attendance

BUILDS CHARACTER

Christian Home Week

Observe this Sunday as Christian Home Service Day. Let us aid our Laymen's Organization in applying Christianity to the Solution of Human Problems. Help remedy the tragedy of Adult Delinquency—the greatest reason for Juvenile Delinquency. The failure of parents has resulted in wrecking millions of young lives. Then Mr. and Mrs. — be sure your failure does not cost you and God the soul of your child.

Wake up! Get right! Make a move in the direction of the church and take you teen-agers with you! Just remember, the Church is the strongest dyke against evil. The Church is the greatest foe of the penitentiary. The Church is mighty important, because Christ died for it.

How can anyone afford NOT to support it — NOT to attend it — NOT to help propagate its teachings? Take you youngsters to church this Christian Home Week.

Spiritual Values take on a very different meaning with us adults once our juveniles become involved in the dope-menace or get in trouble with the police.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

There is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. The number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. # Cicada Wins Kentucky Oaks By 3 Lengths

Louisville, Ky. (P) —Christopher T. Chenery's Cicada, a central-figure in the big Kentucky Derby drama, easily won the $42,800 Kentucky Oaks on a sloppy track Friday at Churchill Downs.

The champion 2-year-old filly of 1961 had been entered along with stablemate Sir Gaylord for today's Derby. However, when Sir Gaylord was injured this morning and had to be withdrawn, Chenery also scratched Cicada from the 3-year-old classic and left her in the Oaks, which is restricted to fillies.

Willie Shoemaker rode Cicada, who drew away from her field just before turning into the stretch and romped home a winner with 3 lengths of daylight. A Canadian filly E. P. Taylor's Flaming Page, finished second and P. L. Grissom's Fortune Isle was third in the field of 6.

Cicada, a bay daughter of Bryan G-Satsuma, stepped the 1-16 mile in 1:44 3-5 over a sloppy track caused by afternoon showers and paid $2.20, and $2.20 with no show betting.

Flaming Page who started at 25-1, returned $5.40 to place.

Cicada had met the colts in the Florida Derby March 31

O'Toole Gets Even, Handling Cards By 3-2

Cincinnati (P) — Jim O'Toole got his revenge Friday night by limiting the St. Louis Cardinals to 5 hits, while 3 of his teammates homered to lead the Cincinnati Reds to a 3-2 victory in the opener of a 4-game series.

It was the best performance so far for the 25-year-old southpaw, who was an easy mark for the Cardinals a week ago. He is now 2-3.

The first homer was by Frank Robinson who smacked loser Larry Jackson's (3-2) first pitch over the centerfield fence to start the second inning.

Leo Cardenas opened the next inning with a homer off the left field screen and Vada Pinson hit his 7th homer of the season in the 4th inning.

Bleary-Eyed Giants KO Cubs For 10th Straight

... CEPEDA LEADS BIG ATTACK

Chicago (P) —The not-so-sleepy San Francisco Giants, paced by Orlando Cepeda's 5 rbi's on a homer, double and single, slugged out a 10th straight triumph, 11-6, over the Chicago Cubs Thursday.

The first-place Giants, who got to bed about 5 a.m., Chicago time after the plane trouble en route, chased a rival starting pitcher for the 24th time in as many games in providing lefty Billy Pierce with his 4th victory without defeat.

However, Pierce was relieved in the 7th by another former Chicago White Sox hurler, Don Larsen, in the Giants' first 1962 Chicago appearance. This broke a skein of 7 successive complete games by a Giant pitcher.

After Chicago's Billy Williams smashed a none-out homer in the first to end Pierce's string of scoreless innings at 17 2-3, the Giants went to work on Cub starter Dick Ellsworth.

Cepeda opened the Giant second with his 8th homer of the season, matching teammate Willie Mays for the league lead. Cepeda's 5 rbi's also sent him into the league lead with 28.

In the 3rd Jim Davenport's double, Chuck Hiller's single and two walks chased Ellsworth. Cepeda lined a two-run double that just missed being a grand-slam homer off Tony Balsamo.

Another 3-run Giant inning in the 4th with Mays' first triple of the year and Hiller's double being the big blows.

State Sen. Lautenschlager's Real Estate License Revoked

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

The Nebraska Real Estate Commission Friday announced that it has revoked the real estate broker's license of Sen. Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island.

The action was taken by the 5-member commission at a meeting at Omaha Thursday, and announced in Lincoln Friday by Chairman Frank Marsh, secretary of state.

In its report, the commission said the revocation was made on the grounds that Lautenschlager "violated his obligation as a real estate broker in his failure to disclose to his principals material facts relating to the sale of property involved, (and) in acting as a broker and undisclosed principal in the transaction."

The matter involved a 1959 farm sale transaction in which the Grand Island senator acted as real estate agent for Stuart and Adelia Schepers in the sale of their Merrick County farm.

The Schepers later filed a civil action in Hall County District Court against Sen. Lautenschlager and his uncle, William Lautenschlager, who had purchased the farm and later resold it.

The District Court awarded the Schepers an $8,000 judgment against the senator and his uncle, and a separate $1,200 judgment against the senator for his commission on the sale.

The lower court decision was upheld by the State Supreme Court which said that Lautenschlager had "violated his duty as a broker."

Commenting on the commission's action, Sen. Lautenschlager said, "I am naturally disappointed with the position taken."

"However, I am very pleased at the response and testimony given in my behalf by substantial and prominent citizens in my district who testified as to business transactions with me over the years as having been of the highest ethical standard," he continued.

The senator said he thought it "unfortunate" that the issue "has been magnified to the degree that it has, especially when you take into account that in the very beginning the sellers of this property set their sale price and they received exactly what they asked."

"The sellers were satisfied to such an extent that they even discussed with me the possible sale of another farm and also talked to their neighbors as to how pleased they were with the sale."

Lautenschlager commented that "no one to this date has filed a complaint (on the transaction) with the Real Estate Commission."

Later Friday, State Insurance Director Frank Barrett said he will review the findings made by the commission to determine whether Lautenschlager violated any state insurance laws.

He had noted previously that he has authority to suspend or revoke a license where the licensee has been guilty of "fraud, misrepresentation or dishonest practices."

The insurance director also had said that he thought this might apply to practices outside the insurance business, but noted there have been no complaints of Lautenschlager's dealings as an insurance agent.
